

Theater

Courses

Theater 1: an introductory course to theater that includes acting and improvisation as well as writing and performing your own scenes and monologues

Theater 2: an intermediate course focused on scene work, monologues, classic and contemporary plays

Theater 3: an advanced course focusing on character development, different approaches to acting as well as performing classic and contemporary works

Performances

Performance opportunities abound! From big fall and spring productions to smaller winter and spring acting showcases, to our summer theater project, Sonora Theater Department offers a ton of acting and volunteering opportunities!