Athletics Newsletter - April 2021

Troy Athletics is BACK!

While adhering to state and local health guidelines, Troy High School athletes are back on the field, in the pool and on the court. What a great site it is to watch our student-athletes compete once again. Below is a brief insight into the status of each sport, athletic clearance information and other pertinent information. In this document you will also find the Troy Outdoor Spectator Protocols as well as the FJUHSD Indoor Athletic Event Game Management Plan.

Lindsey Gaglio

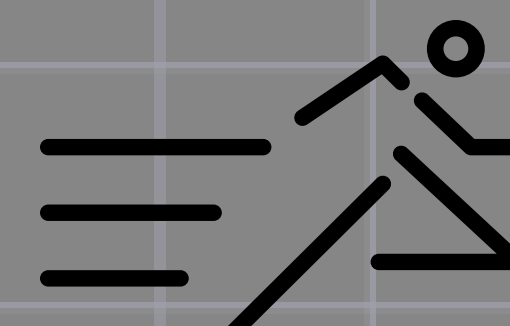

Senior Lindsey Gaglio is Troy High School's female Athlete of Character. A 4-year varsity soccer player, a 3-year track athlete, an all league and scholar athlete, Lindsey is a tremendous athlete and competitor. She treats her coaches and teammates with respect and wins and loses with grace. Lindsey embodies what it means to be a Troy Warrior!

Troy High School Athletic Clearance and Physical Night

The athletic clearance process for the 2021-2022 school year begins May 1st. Physicals are required and must be completed on or anytime after May 1st. Athletic clearance is also required to participate in summer camps.

Troy will host a Physical Night on Wednesday, June 9 at 4:30 PM at Fullerton Physical Therapy: 680 Langsdorf Drive #100, Fullerton, CA 92831. Athletics, Dance, Cheer, and NJROTC may attend as can any Troy student who needs to be athletically cleared. The cost is $35. No sign-up is required; simply arrive with all necessary paperwork. Clearance paper work and athletic clearance directions can be found on the Troy High School website under "Athletics" then "Athletic Clearance"

Note - Physicals can be completed either with the student's doctor or at the Physical Night.

Below is the link for tonight's football game vs La Habra. Watch as football seniors are honored before the game at 6:15. Dance and Cheer will follow at halftime with a routine of their own. Should be a great night at the stadium!
