

Troy High School Course Profile

Course Title:

Broadcast Journalism II Honors

Course Prerequisites:

Refer to annual registration presentation

Course Description:

Mission Statement

To increase student body awareness, morale and school spirit by creating comprehensive, entertaining, informative and professional content that will be viewed and enjoyed by all.

Objectives and Goals

The objective of this course is to offer instruction in the creation, writing, recording, editing and broadcasting of news, features, editorials, critical reviews, etc. Content includes some history of broadcast journalism, criteria for recognizing sound journalistic practices, basics of production and social media.

A major goal of this course is to produce the daily news and feature program “Omnia” to be broadcast school wide through the intranet as well as the internet (youtube and possibly facebook live). This course is a great opportunity for students to realize their creative potential to tell stories that are happening in their community.

Students entering this course should already have a mastery of the following concepts and possess the following skills:

Storytelling with a screen:

photography, photoshop, videography, video editing, audio recording, audio editing, story structure, character development,

Workload expectations for this course:

Students are expected to do 10-20 hours per quarter of additional work outside of class. 3-5 times per semester students will be required to attend events after school.