

Welcome from the Titan BN Army ROTC Program

Dear Student,

Thank you for inquiring about the Titan Battalion, United States Army Reserve Officers Training Corps (ROTC) program located at California State University-Fullerton. We'd like to extend an invitation to visit our building on campus, talk to some of our students and discuss possible scholarships and opportunities Army ROTC offers eligible students who are attending CSUF, Chapman, Vanguard, Biola University and Whittier College. Junior College students may also apply with intent to transfer.

Army ROTC is a federal training program for full time students seeking their Bachelor or Master's Degree, our program develops students in officer leadership, physical fitness, and tactical skills on and off campus to meet the ROTC course requirements. Freshmen and sophomores may participate in ROTC without a service contract with the Army. Once completing the ROTC program and upon graduation the student accepts a commission as a Second Lieutenant to serve in the United States Army. Similar to the West Point program, Army ROTC offers the additional option of serving in the Army Reserves or National Guard upon commissioning with 100% job placement.

Serving your country as an Army Officer is an honor, privilege with advanced professional opportunities and benefits. Army ROTC can assist with paying for college by offering scholarships and incentives for qualified students:

- Full Tuition Scholarships 2, 3 and 4yr (5 yr scholarships for STEM majors)
- Book Allowance of $600.00 a semester, $1,200.00 an academic year.
- Monthly Cadet Pay (stipend/allowance) between $300.00 and $500.00 every month as a FT student.
- Note Scholarships can be utilized as $10,000.00 payment for yearly Room and Board instead of Tuition.
- Current Army Reservists, National Guard and prior server members are also applicable for ROTC Scholarships.
