WHAT IS THE PSAT/NMSQT?

A preliminary or practice SAT test to help students prepare for the official SAT exam. Junior year PSAT scores may qualify them for the National Merit Scholarship Contest (NMSQT), which may earn them a merit scholarship.

WHEN AND HOW DO 10-11 GRADERS REGISTER AND PAY FOR THE PSAT?

Registration and payment is handled through Troy's Total Registration site: <https://user.totalregistration.net/PSAT/051009>
Juniors have priority registration August 18-25
Sophomores may register August 26- September 2
Any juniors who did not register during priority registration may also register August 26- September 2
Exam is capped at 550 testers total, so be sure to register as soon as you are able.
Full refunds are issued through September 3

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER I REGISTER AND PAY FOR THE PSAT?

Registered students will receive emails from Total Registration (TR) with exam details and reminders. Registered students are responsible for reading those emails so that they arrive for the exam on time and prepared.
