Academic Honesty Pledge

Heritage Academic Honesty Pledge

Heritage strives to prepare students for the challenges of careers and/or academic rigor of university work. Academic dishonesty prevents students from gaining the necessary skills needed to succeed at work or the university level, and it demonstrates a lack of integrity and character. Heritage expects students to maintain the highest degree of academic honesty. Academic dishonesty includes one or more (but is NOT limited to) the following:

- Plagiarism:
Where sources are used or referred to, whether in the form of direct quotation or paraphrase, such sources must be fully and appropriately cited. Submitting papers or cutting and pasting text from the Internet is plagiarism.
- Copying answers on assignments from other students' work
- Providing your work to other students to be copied
- Discussing a quiz with someone who has not yet taken it.
- Giving or receiving answers during tests or quizzes
- Using any form of memory aid during tests or quizzes without the permission of the teacher
- Accessing a test or quiz for the purpose of determining the questions in advance
- Taking a test or quiz from the classroom
- Photographing or texting during a test
- Taking credit for group work when you have not contributed
- Using summaries or commentaries such as Spark Notes in place of reading the assigned materials
- Students are expected to attend all classes during the school day. It is unacceptable for a student to cut class in order to prepare for another class. Students caught cutting class for this reason may suffer consequences similar to those imposed for cheating.
- Social Networking. Soliciting or posting tests, quizzes, or assignments, in whole or in part, on a social network site is considered cheating.

My definition of Academic Dishonesty is:

I pledge to do my best to maintain Academic Honesty by not participating in any academically dishonest actions.
