SONORA MORNING ANNOUNCEMENTS WEDNESDAY, APRIL 19, 2017

Wed. 4/19

- Attention sophomores: Don't forget to dress up in stoplight colors – red, yellow, and green - tomorrow.

Wed. 4/19

- Hundreds of thousands of students of all beliefs, backgrounds and orientations participate in the Day of Silence. Anti-LGBTQ bullying and harassment affects all students. Slurs are commonplace in school. The Day of Silence is an example of students, from elementary school to college, working together proactively to bring attention to the anti-LGBTQ name-calling, bullying and harassment experienced by LGBTQ and straight students alike. Find out how to participate in the lower commons during lunch.

Fri. 4/21

- Come out to our cheer tryouts starting April 24th at 3:30 p.m. in the lower commons. Please be sure you have picked up a tryout packet from the office and have a copy of your 2017-18 physical. Come be part of our national award-winning cheer program. See you on the 24th!

Wed. 4/19

- Attention seniors: If you have been awarded a scholarship, apart from those we have announced, we want to know about it. Come and share your great news with Ms. Nia in the College and Career Center.

Fri. 4/21

- The Office of the District Attorney, Orange County, is now accepting applications for the 18th annual Summer Youth Education Conference. This is a week-long, intensive summer program that focuses on the criminal justice system. The program is open to juniors and seniors interested in pursuing a career in criminal justice. Applications are available in the College and Career Center and are due this Friday.

Fri. 4/21

- Attention students: Are you interested in taking an ROP class over the summer? The ROP Course Offerings for Summer 2017 are now available to students in the Guidance Office. Please come at break, lunch, or after school to pick up the course offerings and the application. If you have any questions, see Mrs. Beglin in the guidance office. Act Quickly! The applications are due by May 12th to Mrs. Beglin.

Thurs. 4/20

- There is a mandatory NHS meeting tomorrow at lunch in the theater. Don't forget to wear your shirts.

Wed. 4/19

- Hey, Raiders! There is an American Cancer Society Club meeting today at lunch in room 405 in the math wing. We have an upcoming fundraiser. Don't forget to bring your letters to breast cancer patients.
