

Troy High School Course Profile

Course Title: Special Studies Drawing Painting

Course Prerequisites: Refer To Registration Presentation

Course Description:

Students will enhance their creative ability, while demonstrating a variety of techniques, styles and mediums. Students will be creating a portfolio which will contain a variety of work and media that will demonstrate a high level of thinking and manipulative skills.

Students entering this course should already have a mastery of the following concepts and possess the following skills:

- Students should know the Art Elements and Principles. Students should have knowledge and be able and willing to expand on their Craftsmanship, Creativity and Concept in their artwork.

Workload Expectations for this course (list typical amount of homework, projects, presentations, papers, etc.):

- Projects are completed in class. Projects are individual and group based and may involve using mediums such as Oil Paint, Acrylic Paint, Watercolor, Graphite, Charcoal and Pastels.