

Troy High School Course Profile

Course Title: English 2 College Prep

Course Prerequisites: Refer To Registration Presentation

Course Description:

- Grade level reading comprehension;
- Writing demonstrates solid understanding of grammar and mechanics; students are also able to develop written work (paragraphs and essays) in an organized way;
- Students use critical thinking skills to analyze written works.
- Students are willing to share ideas in small groups and with the class.
- Students are ready to learn and demonstrate a diligent work ethic.
- Students are prepared to submit assignments both online and/or in hard copy as the teacher requires.

Workload Expectations:

- Generally less than one-hour of homework each night;
- Not more than 3 formal essays per semester;
- Assignments related to the Pearson text and additional units of literature including grammar, mechanics, and writing conventions;
- One formal presentation and/or project per semester.