

Troy High School Course Profile

Course Title: AP Physics C

Course Prerequisites: Refer To Registration Presentation

Course Description:

This class is hard. AP Physics C is a 2nd year physics class delving deeper into topics of mechanics and electricity and magnetism.

Students entering this course should already have a mastery of the following concepts and possess the following skills:

- Comfortable with word problems from math class
- Assumed exposure to physics, AP Physics 2.

Workload Expectations for this course (list typical amount of homework, projects, presentations, papers, etc.):

- 30 minutes each night
- 20+ labs per year
- Students who skip AP Physics 2 may struggle with workload due to not having previous familiarity with the content