

Troy High School Course Profile

Course Title: Advanced Placement World History

Course Prerequisites: Please Refer to Registration Presentation

Course Description: In-depth study of World History covering main trends in trade, economics, religion, technology, government, warfare and human rights. Skills include all required for AP history-based tests.

Students entering this course should already have a mastery of the following concepts and possess the following skills:

- Ability to read at a post 11th grade level
- Basic understanding of persuasive essay components
- Ability to analyze primary sources and organize them into an argument
- Ability to understand various types of writing styles

Workload Expectations for this course (list typical amount of homework, projects, presentations, papers, etc.):

- Homework: text questions (30 to 40 in-depth questions over a 3 to 4 week period), study guide, visual idea representations, PowerPoint summary of ideas (group level)
- Occasional readings, worksheets if not completed in class
- AP Test is not required to pass the class or earn a specific grade
- This will not be your hardest class.