Buena Park High School Principal Selection

December 16, 2016

Superintendent Scott Scambray is pleased to announce the appointment of Sonje Berg as the new Principal of Buena Park High School and will officially assume the duties of Principal on January 3, 2017.

Sonje began his career in education in 2005 as a science and health teacher, eighth-grade class coordinator, Professional Learning Community (PLC) leader, and Small Learning Community (SLC) lead teacher in the Los Angeles Unified School District. Sonje joined the District in July of 2010 as Assistant Principal Student Affairs (APSA) at La Habra High School. During his time at LHHS, Sonje led the implementation of the AP pathway for the schools' Humanities Magnet Program. From 2012 to 2014, Sonje served as Assistant Principal Student Affairs (APSA), at Fullerton Union High School (FUHS). While at FUHS, Sonje developed and coordinated the implementation of the STEM Academy, which included integration with local middle schools, community colleges, and universities.

In July of 2014, Sonje was appointed Assistant Principal Pupil Services (APPS) at Troy High School (TRHS). Currently, Sonje serves as Assistant Principal Instruction & Operations (APIO), at TRHS. As APIO at TRHS, Sonje served as the District Special Education Curriculum Committee Chair, managed the master schedule and site budget, and developed and implemented school-wide professional development focused on student intervention and instructional strategies.

Sonje earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Political Science at the United States Air Force Academy, Colorado; a Master of Arts degree in Political Science and teaching credential at California State University, Long Beach; an Administrative Services Credential at California State University, Dominguez Hills; and is currently pursuing a Doctorate degree in Education and Leadership at California State University, Fullerton with an anticipated completion date in the summer, 2017. Sonje currently serves as Major in the United States Air Force Reserves.

Sonje and his wife, Shannon, live in La Habra and have two children, Landon (7) and Cambria (4). Congratulations to Sonje Berg, new Principal and Coyote family member of Buena Park High School.
