

TROY HIGH SCHOOL WARRIOR WEEKLY

November 18, 2022

Warriors, what a week it has been! As of 3:30pm today we are on Thanksgiving Break which continues until Monday, November 28th. Before we start on our vacation, let's have a recap of the week. It is going to be a great Friday, at Troy High School! Go, Warriors!

On Wednesday, our NJROTC held their Annual Military Inspection (AMI). Area 11 NJROTC Manager, Commander Garcia came up from San Diego along with a number of other NJROTC instructors from Area 11 to judge the overall performance of our Troy NJROTC. Our cadets were judged on knowledge of General Orders, Drill, Uniform Inspection, Academic presentations, and specialized teams, such as unarmed and armed drill. Despite the windy conditions outside, it was a fantastic day for our NJROTC! Congratulations to our cadets and their instructors, Lt. Cecil, Lt. Fronek, Master Sgt. Yocke, and 1st Sgt. Barnes, as well as all our NJROTC Booster parents for their support!

Earlier in the morning, at the beginning of the AMI, our cadets were beginning to line up and practice for the official inspection a little later. Thank you to Assistant Principal, Mr. Lance Bletscher for the photos of the AMI for this edition of the Warrior Weekly!

Last, but not least in NJROTC news, and a bright spot last weekend for our cadets—they performed exceptionally at the Pacifica High School Drill meet last Saturday. Our cadets took home 21 trophies and qualified for the Area 11 Championship, but know they still have a lot of work to do before being able to earn the right to be Area 11 Champions and qualify for Navy Nationals in the spring!

From Girls' Golf Coach, Mr. Allen Ulibarri, here is the final announcement for the Troy Girls Golf Team for the 2022 season. “Troy Girls Golf Team concluded the 2022 season at the SOCAL Girls High School Championship at Brookside in Pasadena where Alison Soewito (2025) represented the team in individual CIF play. Shooting a solid 6 over, on a wet and cold course, Alison battled strong competition until the final 18th hole. Congratulations to Alison for her strong individual CIF run. A big thank you to the amazing 2022 Troy Girls Golf Team who won their 8th Freeway League Title in a row. With many varsity players returning in 2023, the team will be looking to continue its outstanding legacy of golf next season.”

Here is some wonderful news from our Mock Trial Advisor, Ms. Gabrielle Hufferd!
“After a very successful season, Troy's Mock Trial team has finished for the year. We went up against the toughest teams in the county and both Defense and Prosecution (pictured) won a trial during the in-person competitions. It was so great to be back in the courthouse after Zoom trials the last few years! Special Thanks goes out to Randy Clement Esq. for being a terrific coach, Kayla Nguyen and Ethan Wei for being amazing Captains and a shout out to all the Seniors on the team - your talent will be missed!”

Today, our Troy Marching band and Guard are having some final practice before the Arcadia Band Review tomorrow! Thank you to everyone for cooperating as we closed down our front drop off lanes for 2nd period to allow the band a safe street upon which to march. If you are interested in seeing our band perform, they will be marching down Duarte Avenue in Arcadia on Saturday around 9:30am! The roads are completely closed to traffic, so plan on parking and having to walk a little bit to find a place to sit. Our band and guard are looking and sounding good, so it will be interesting to see how they place. They are wearing uniforms that are more specifically used for parades rather than field shows. For the band people out there, you probably know it is the stripe on the leg that is the giveaway. It will be about 70 degrees in Arcadia tomorrow at parade time, and it is going to be a great day for a parade! Go, Warriors!

Troy AP Economics Teacher, Mr. David St. Clair reported about a Financial Advisors contest in which some extraordinary Troy students achieved some outstanding results this week! “On Thursday, Troy High's Macroeconomic students competed in the Financial Adviser's Contest at the California Credit Union in Glendale CA. Students were given the task of creating a financial plan for a fictitious client with certain financial goals. After creating the plan, students presented it to a panel of judges who then asked several clarifying and often difficult questions in regards to their plan. 3 teams competed in the finals for Troy. Congratulations to the team of Audrey Her, Coco Ming, Cheryl Wang and Sahana Anand for placing 2nd amongst 20 teams. For their 2nd place finish, each team member received $500! All of our student teams were amazing! It was a wonderful day for the Warriors and financial literacy!” Again, great job to all of our students in this competition! Way to go, Warriors!

Our team, and Mr. St. Clair in the selfie!

Behind Dr. Knowles are a few students from Hermosa Drive Elementary School, who are very involved in media at their school. As it turns out, their Principal, Dr. Caroline Llewellyn is known to many of us having worked at Troy for a few years. ☺ She asked to bring her students to see our Omnia class and get some pointers on how to run a good studio and media production.

Thank you, Troy Omnia students for giving tips to the next generation of broadcasting students!

Have a wonderful Thanksgiving and vacation! We have all earned the time off, and this is a nice extended break after what has been a solid stretch of school from mid-August until now. While enjoying time with family and friends over the break, also take time to get in as much rest and relaxation as you need to recharge. If that means watching the Hallmark Channel and holiday movies, or the more traditional Thanksgiving traditions such as shopping, sleeping, eating too much turkey, playing football, watching football, or whatever else means rest and relaxation to you, do it. I will see you back at school on November 28th so be ready to finish off the final four weeks of the Fall Semester! Warrior Family, have a fantastic Thanksgiving break!
