

TROY HIGH SCHOOL WARRIOR WEEKLY

December 23, 2022

Troy Family, we have finished the Fall Semester, 2022 and are now either on or about to be on Winter Break! Since the pandemic this has felt like the most normal semester since the Spring of 2020, and at least for me, I am very grateful. Thank you to all our students, parents, teachers, clerks, counselors, custodians, administration, coaches, M & O, District administration, superintendent, and Board of Trustees, as we all worked together to get us here. We have persevered, and we have overcome adversity, which to me is the greatest holiday gift of all. 😊

2022 WHY VOTE SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

NSHSS awards students who demonstrate an active commitment for spreading awareness/education on the importance of voting in their community.

Last year I recall writing about Troy scholar student, Ms. Ariana Perez and her writing expertise especially with essays and poetry. Ariana has continued her winning ways and was recently awarded a national scholarship of $1000 from the National Society of High School

Scholars. Additionally, mentored by Troy English Teacher, Ms. Carrie-Anne Snipes, Ariana has continued to enter essay and poetry contests. Ariana has an upcoming contest, which I believe will be her second time participating in the MISS Teen Placentia/Yorba Linda contest held on Feb 4, 2023. I was informed Ariana will perform an original poem for her talent, and given her success, I would not be surprised if that is the winning strategy. Great job, Ariana!

Mr. Allen Stubblefield is very proud of our student Cyber Warriors for their performance in the Cyber Patriot competition a couple weeks ago. From CyberPatriot, via Mr. Stubblefield, here are the official results.

OFFICIAL: Troy Cyber takes 1st & 3rd in STATE CyberPatriot round!!!

Congrats to our two teams for topping CA, by far the most populous state in terms of the huge number of teams.

1. 1st place in JROTC: RUNTIME TERROR, Victoria Yang, Anna Wu, Chan Chung, Brian Ni, Johnny Ni, and Aaron Shan
2. 3rd place in JROTC: Cyber Noobs, Andy Ahn, Benjamin Pham, Eric Tian, Daniel Tran, Alex Wang, Jacob Yu
3. The 2nd place team was the National Champions in the All-Service last year!

We have 2 Open teams in the top 20, both in position to possibly make it to Nationals if they do well on Jan 21 during the semi-finals hosted here at Troy HS.

65% of all Troy teams are advancing to the semi-finals. Our goal is 50% - so this is amazing!

- 7 of 8 NJROTC teams in the Platinum tier (top 30%)
- 19 of 34 Open teams in the Platinum tier (top 30%)
- 6 of 7 Open teams in the Gold tier (middle 40%)

We have a successful conclusion to the feel good story from last week regarding Troy graduate Eric Lindquist from the Class of 1985! Dr. Lindquist has his ring back on his hand at home in New Jersey along with some new Troy football swag. In what may be a Christmas miracle, his ring made it back to him before the bomb cyclone storm that is currently in the Midwest and East Coast arrived. In case you missed the story last week, below is a partial recap with the photo of the ring at right. Pictured at left is the ring back with its rightful owner.

You may ask why is there a photo of a Troy High School class ring from 1985 in the Warrior Weekly? Because this was sent to us this week in an envelope from Humboldt, CA. The envelope had no return address and the contents were simply listed as "found property." We were able to see the initials inside the ring as ECL and also noticed the football script on the ring. A little more investigation revealed that the name of the student is Eric Christopher Lindquist. Naturally I went to the Troy starting quarterback in 1985 and 1986, Mr. David St. Clair and asked him if he knew anyone with the initials of ECL, which he immediately knew before I told him. While Mr. St. Clair did not know where Mr. Lindquist could be found, he was able to reach out to his brother who had also graduated in 1985 and within hours had found Mr. Lindquist and had made contact with him. He is now a veterinarian in New Jersey, and was very surprised to learn his ring had been found.

It is time for two weeks of Winter Vacation and Holiday celebrations! Some of us also still have some holiday shopping to do, including Luna. Pictured above are some holiday gifts I received yesterday, including a gift from Mrs. Shannon Cogswell for Luna. A minute after I set down the bags, Luna was able to smell her gift (a latex pig) and immediately began looking through the bags. In the end, she received what she was looking for a couple days early. I wish everyone a wonderful, restful, relaxing, enjoyable, and safe Holiday Season! I will see everyone next year on Monday, January 9, 2023! Warrior Family, Happy Holidays!
