

TROY HIGH SCHOOL WARRIOR WEEKLY

March 3, 2023

We are in March and continuing a storyline from the last Warrior Weekly, nothing says springtime like rain and even snow! I have pictures, and despite what I said about no anticipated snow at Troy, it turns out I was wrong. ☺ It has been an interesting week with a lot of great things happening for our students! On to the news!

On Wednesday, we had a very rare and brief snow shower at Troy High School. In addition to the students that were outside seeing the falling snow, you had some very excited Troy Staff. From left to right, Ms. Williams, Ms. Black, Ms. Martinez, Dr. Wills, and Ms. Wilde. Nobody wanted to miss the snow just in case we don't see it again at Troy for awhile!

Troy's Science Olympiad Team is rolling again! Here is a report from Coach, Kurt Wahl on our march towards the California State Final and National Championship!

Congratulations to the Troy Science Olympiad Team for once again winning first place at the Orange County Regional Science Olympiad Competition. This marks the 36th consecutive year that Troy has won first place. The team had a great day winning medals in 22 of the 23 contested events. In fact, the warriors finished first place in more than half of the events, taking gold medals in 12 events. Their next competition will be the State Finals held on April 8th at Caltech.

In Cyber News, we are closing in on the National Championship in two weeks! Troy has two teams competing, and you are able to read up on both in THE CYBERSENTINEL, the official CyberPatriot newsletter. I have included the link below to their March, 2023 issue. There are more details about CyberPatriot, as well as information on all the teams going to the National Championships! In the Open Division, Troy's team is Baboons Together Strong (BTS), and in the All Services Division, Runtime Terror is making a repeat appearance! Let's go, Warriors!

Our Troy Red Hots dance teams are currently in Orlando, Florida competing in the Contest of Champions Dance Nationals! Dance Program Director, Ms. Arielle Gates has been working with our teams, and they are as ready as possible for this opportunity! This is a great group of Troy students and we have seen their dance ability all year in our Pep rallies, and halftime shows. I am looking forward to more news about the Nationals! Go, Warriors!

Even with some challenging weather this week, our sports teams have been competing and winning! Our Boys' Baseball team is 4-0 and defeated Kennedy High School yesterday 6-2! Girls' Softball defeated Woodbridge yesterday 8-3. Our Boys' Swim is 2-0, defeating Ayala on Wednesday, and our Girls' Swim is 1-1 at the moment. Boys' Volleyball is starting a hot streak and won 3-1 Tuesday vs. Cathedral High School! Last but not least yesterday, Boys' Tennis beat Valencia High School! Taking advantage of the good weather this weekend, Baseball is playing today vs. El Toro and tomorrow vs. Calvary Chapel and Softball will be playing Garden Grove at home today! It is that time of the year for spring sports! Now we just need to get the Spring. ☺

On Tuesday, fifteen young ladies from Troy attended the CIF Women in Sports Conference. This event supports, motivates, and provides a needed platform for speakers to encourage leadership development in our female athletes, encouraging the limitless possibilities of what women can accomplish in all aspects of life when given the same opportunities as men!

Last Saturday, I received a little more snow than Troy when the snow started falling around 10am. By 10:30am, the snow was sticking and Luna was running around actually having a pretty good time. To her, snow was definitely an improvement over the rain! I don't disagree!

Ms. Donna Mynster and I also had a chance to build a snowman. The first one ever at my home. However, this weekend, like all of us I do look forward to some sunshine, even though it is on the cooler side. It is perfect weather to watch a movie, play some sports, go for a hike, bike, or grill some lunch or dinner and have some friends and family over! Whatever you decide to do, I hope you get some rest and relaxation, enjoying the weekend, and spending time with family and friends. I will see everyone back here Monday morning!

W.V. Mynster
