

TROY HIGH SCHOOL WARRIOR WEEKLY

Luna in the Outdoor Classroom, 5-11-20.

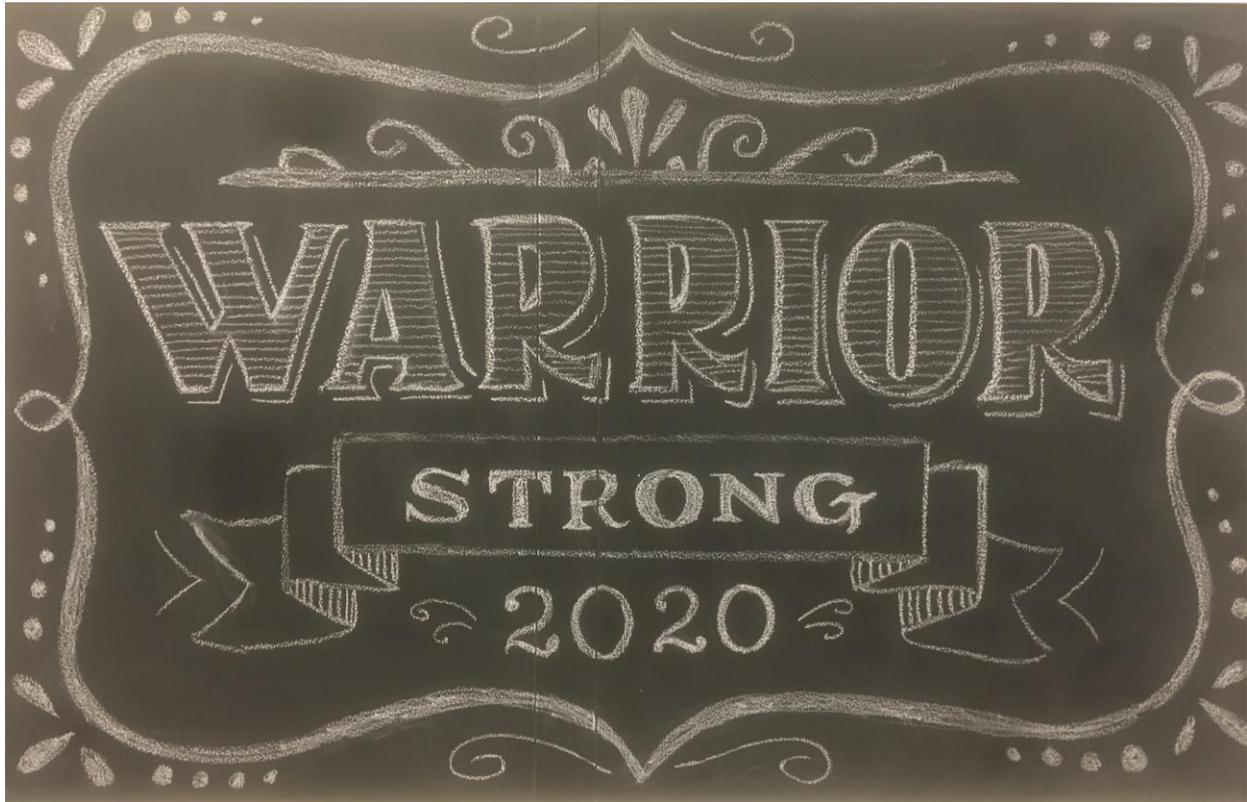

May 22, 2020

Warriors, it is the Memorial Day Weekend! Traditionally, this is the unofficial start of summer. However, while I have seen a few R.V.'s on the highway it does not appear most of us are going anywhere due to the COVID-19 pandemic. It has been a challenging spring for everyone, but there is hope on the near horizon as we are starting to see California and our country cautiously opening some businesses, parks, common and recreation areas to active use. We have one week left in the regular school year! Go Warriors! We celebrate the Class of 2020 in our Virtual Troy Graduation on Thursday, May 28th at 7:00pm! Troy's graduation ceremony may be accessed at our school's website located here. <https://www.fjuhsd.org/Page/19> Our ceremony follows our traditional format and will run for approximately an hour. Go Warriors!

On Monday and Tuesday we had the FJUHSJ Jumbotron in our North parking lot and were able to display Troy's Class of 2020 Graduates' photos. There was a steady stream of graduates and families, not to mention our seniors on Tuesday picking up their caps and gowns who were able to come through and see the Class of 2020 on the big screen. Thank you to our Superintendent, Dr. Scambray for providing this opportunity to honor our Class of 2020!

Shannon Cogswell, 2020

Returning Troy students, here is some important information from Lead Troy Counselor, Ms. Sarah Saleen with what you need to know regarding your classes in the fall.

Attention Troy Students and Families,

2020-2021 courses are viewable on student Aeries portal accounts from Thursday, May 21 at 7:00 a.m. through Monday, May 25 by 4:00 p.m. Once in Aeries, go to the "Classes" option and then select "Course Request(s)" to view next year's courses. If students would like to request a course change they may complete this Google Form:

<https://forms.gle/yewtQw6yHwHFjoGH6>.

Warriors! Here is the information so many returning students and families are looking for concerning textbook return and cleaning out lockers! The graduating Class of 2020, seniors will be the first to do this and they have received the information regarding when they come to school by alpha on May 26th, 27th, and 28th. For all returning students, this information concerning your dates and times is now on our school website. We will be practicing Social Distancing and everyone needs to be using personal protective equipment to be on campus.

* Students ONLY with masks are allowed on campus ONLY during their assigned time.*

Regular AP Exams are wrapping up today. AP Warriors, great job doing your best on what was a very strange testing AP testing season. There are still AP make-up exams, but for the vast majority of students, you are done! Students, you were effectively prepared by your teachers all year long. I am certain your hard work has paid off and you will reap the benefits of your academic labor. I look forward to getting your scores this summer. Way to go Warriors!

Scholarship news from Troy Counselor, Ms. Lisa Avila! Troy student, Mr. Noah Tavera was one of eight students in the L.A. region, to receive a $1000.00 scholarship from the organization Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States. Also awarded by this veterans group, Noah was also the recipient of the $500.00 Mike Palomo Scholarship bringing his scholarship total to $1,500.00. Congratulations, Noah Tavera!

Congratulations to Ms. Stephanie Duan! Troy junior, Ms. Stephanie Duan was named to the Vice Student Board Member position on the FJUSHD Board of Trustees. FJUSHD Executive Director, Dr. Zener said Stephanie did a fantastic job in the interviews and they are looking forward to her serving in this role during the 2020-2021 school year!

Troy Student Nitin Sreekumar, at the behest of Troy Science Teacher, Mr. James Kirkpatrick sent me this email regarding his Science results from this recent event!

Dear Nitin Sreekumar,

Congrats! You have placed in our OCSEF Virtual Fair 2020! We are delighted to present you with the following award:

Place: 3rd

Category: 1400 PHARMACOLOGY / TOXICOLOGY / Regulation of SKP2 in T-ALL cells as a novel therapeutic treatment for T cell acute lymphoblastic leukemia

We will mail you a certificate, medal and monetary award to the address you provided during the OCSEF registration. Please be patient as we have a large number of envelopes to mail out.

Congrats again and Great Job! This concludes our OCSEF 2020 Virtual Fair.

Thanks and Kind Regards,

The OCSEF Board of Directors

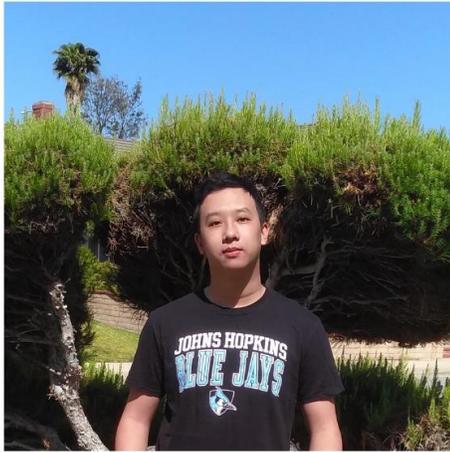

One thing made clear to me after reading this email, is that Nitin has a much better grasp on science and the application of concepts learned in science than I ever did in high school. 😊
Congratulations on this award!

Next Wednesday May 27th at 6:30pm and the day before our virtual graduation ceremony, we will celebrate our seniors in a virtual Reflections Senior Awards Program by posting a hyperlink document on our website, <https://www.fjuhsd.org/Page/19> This hyperlink document will include a collection of videos honoring our seniors receiving awards and scholarships. Congratulations to the Class of 2020!

Troy Peer Tutoring Advisor and English Teacher, Ms. Gabrielle Hufferd sent me some great information regarding our Peer Tutors and what they did for our Warriors that needed additional academic support this year. I am more than honored to give this shout out to our wonderful Peer Tutors. "These Peer Tutoring Officers matched over 150 peer tutors this year. I am so proud and grateful to them and their selfless service to our school. Their quiet work behind the scenes was testament to their strong character and Troy Spirit. Thank you and best of luck!" Mrs. Hufferd.

CONGRATULATIONS PTC BOARD!

Troy AP U.S. History Teacher, Ms. Tiffany Wilson shared this APUSH Mini Zoom Coffee toast meeting from last week in which her students took a Zoom toast (coffee or tea) to their test and success! Ms. Wilson's AP US History students were well prepared, her classes are fun, and this meeting is just another example! We miss seeing our students every day!

This greeting was sent to Troy Tech Coordinator, Ms. Laurie Downum-Bonnett by Troy Tech Internship Partner, Peraton to share with our seniors. Thank you to Peraton for being a wonderful partner to our students and for the best wishes for our Class of 2020!

It is Memorial Day Weekend! Most of us are staying close to home during this pandemic. That we have a home and country we love is due to the sacrifices made by members of our armed forces to preserve our freedoms and way of life. This weekend marks the beginning of summer, but our heartfelt thanks and prayers belong first with our servicemen and women. I will see everyone back at Online Troy High School, Tuesday morning! W.V.
