

TROY HIGH SCHOOL WARRIOR WEEKLY

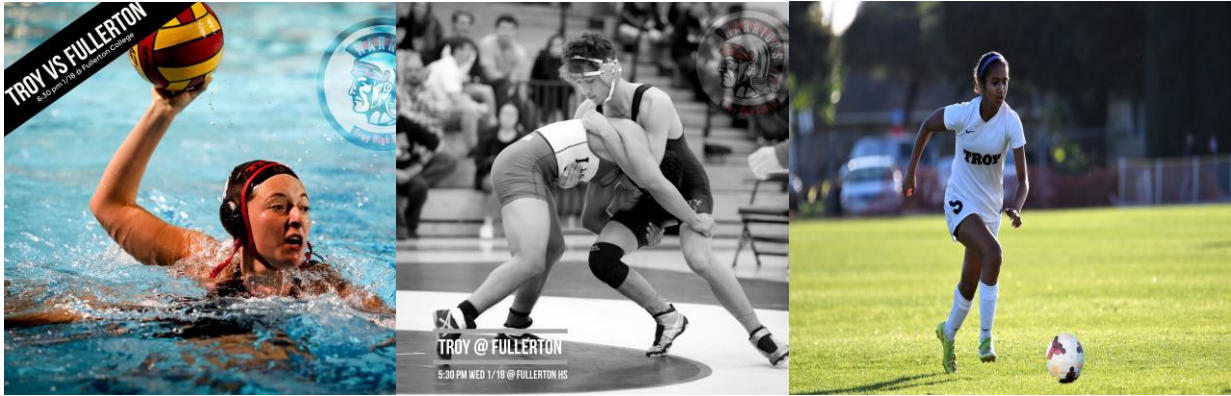

January 20, 2017

In the past I have often praised the wonderful Southern California weather and the predictability of sunshine when the rest of the country is buried in snow and other types of inclement weather. It is now our turn, and we are getting the rain we desperately need, albeit it would be nice if the timing of the rain does not end our drought all at one time... Of course, it is nice to take advantage of snow when possible. ☺ For our commuters, slow down, and be as cautious and drive as safely as you are able!

This week in athletics, we are in the thick of it with our Freeway League schedule, and all of our teams are doing well! Girls' Soccer, Boys' Soccer, Girls' Water Polo, Wrestling, Boys' Basketball and Girls' Basketball are all doing very well! Tonight is a big basketball game against Sonora High School, and it does have Freeway League championship implications!

Great news! In our ongoing attempt to have as many options for students to obtain help with their classes we have once again adjusted the Troy Central Tutoring schedule. For the fall semester we tried moving Troy Central to lunchtime so students could access tutoring during the school day. Unfortunately, students did not take advantage of the change. Therefore, we have moved Troy Central back to the library from 3:00pm-4:00pm four days a week. Students, if you need help, please take advantage of this opportunity!

More weather related news! A couple of years ago when it rained our school phones would go down and we were unable to receive outside calls. We were assured by AT&T they fixed the problems at that time. Unfortunately, the problem has returned and we have been working with AT&T to fix what has become a recurring problem when it rains. Please continue to call our school and if the phones ring busy, please send us an email. Also if you check the school website there is information if you still desire to call that will help route your calls Troy High School from our District Office.

We are in the midst of our Troy Tech /IB/Honors Testing both this Saturday, January 21st and next Saturday, January 28th! Testing is open to all 8th graders that are interested in coming to Troy High School and being part of the Troy Tech Magnet Program for 2017-18! If you are planning to test, please arrive in the North Gym at 7:15am!

McDonald's ALL AMERICAN GAMES

Last week we had a first for Troy High School when Girls' Basketball player, Kianna Smith was named as one of twelve high school basketball players nationwide to play in the 2017 McDonald's All American Basketball Game held in Chicago, Illinois! We have had other players nominated to this team, but Kianna is the first Warrior to be named to the actual team!

Congratulations, and I look forward to seeing you play in Chicago! Next year Kianna will be playing for UC Berkley, so it will also be exciting to see her playing at the college level in 2018!

Thank you to everyone that attended Troy's Open House last evening despite the rain! It was chilly and wet and the weather forced us to move some of our events and displays. However, we still had a nice turnout and we are always excited to show off our school! Thank you to all the students, prospective students, parents, and staff members that made our 2017 Open House one to remember!

It looks like we are going to have a rainy weekend, so if going to the snow is not in your plans, staying inside is probably a good idea. I think it will be a great weekend to drink some hot chocolate, and watch Star Wars, Episodes 2 & 3. Have a great weekend, and don't forget Monday, January 23rd is a Late Start!
